HIMAA 2012 National Conference

Sallyanne Wissmann
President HIMAA
Health Information Management Association of Australia

The national peak body for health information management professionals in Australia

Vision

Improving the health of Australians through professional information management in healthcare
Health Information Management

In all settings across healthcare system governance the healthcare delivery system the information management lifecycle

HIMAA seeks to promote and support our members as the universally recognised specialists in information management at all levels of the healthcare system Environmental Challenges

- Complexity
- Reform
- From silos to collaboration and integration
- Information demand
- Technology
- New ways
- Timeliness, efficiency and effectiveness
- Rate of change

HIMAA seeks to promote and support our members as the universally recognised specialists in information management at all levels of the healthcare system.
Workforce Challenges

- Keeping informed
- Professional development
- Expertise in a constantly changing environment
- Broadening scope
- Defining domain
- Collaborative and influential partnerships
- Workforce transformation

HIMAA seeks to promote and support our members as the universally recognised specialists in information management at all levels of the healthcare system.
HIMAA seeks to promote and support our members as the universally recognised specialists in information management at all levels of the healthcare system.
HIMAA Membership

Receive latest news and industry updates
Access resources
Special Interest Groups
Networking and peer support
Professional development
Advocacy for health information management
Get involved and help shape the future

HIMAA seeks to promote and support our members as the universally recognised specialists in information management at all levels of the healthcare system